Dear Colleagues, Researchers, and Friends,

Welcome to the 5th Euro-Global Summit on Advances in Clinical and Cellular Immunology, taking place on October 18–19, 2027, in Budapest, Hungary!

We are delighted to invite you to be part of this distinguished international gathering, bringing together leading scientists, researchers, academicians, clinicians, and industry professionals to explore the latest breakthroughs and emerging directions in clinical and cellular immunology.

The conference is designed to bring together innovative scientists for cutting edge presentations and lively discussions. The intimate setting allows for productive interactions and stimulating debate.

Having participated in a previous edition, I found the experience both enriching and inspiring. What made it particularly memorable was the opportunity to hear directly from the researchers behind the discoveries, explore fresh perspectives, and engage in stimulating conversations that extended beyond the presentations themselves.

We look forward to welcoming you to Budapest for another memorable edition filled with scientific discoveries, meaningful connections, and inspiring conversations!

Best Regards,
Prof. David R. Kaplan

DISCOVERING

A right choice of conference destination is an important aspect of any international conference and keeping that in consideration, Adv. Immunology 2027 is scheduled in the Beautiful city 'Budapest'.

BUDAPEST

Budapest, the capital city of Hungary, is one of the most beautiful and historically rich destinations in Europe. Situated along the banks of the River Danube, the city is famous for its magnificent architecture, stunning bridges, thermal baths, and vibrant cultural atmosphere. Budapest was formed in 1873 through the unification of three historic towns: Buda, Pest, and Óbuda.

The city is divided into two main sides by the Danube River. Buda, located on the western bank, is known for its hills, historic castles, and peaceful surroundings. Pest, on the eastern bank, is famous for its lively streets, shopping areas, restaurants, and impressive landmarks. The iconic Chain Bridge connects these two sides and offers spectacular views, especially at night.

One of Budapest's most remarkable attractions is the Hungarian Parliament Building, an architectural masterpiece situated beside the Danube. Other popular landmarks include Buda Castle, Fisherman's Bastion, St. Stephen's Basilica, and Heroes' Square. Visitors can also enjoy relaxing experiences at the city's famous thermal baths, such as Széchenyi Thermal Bath. Budapest is also known for its rich cultural heritage, traditional Hungarian cuisine, beautiful music, and exciting nightlife. Popular local dishes include Goulash, Chicken Paprikash, and traditional Hungarian pastries.
